

2017-18 Business Plan

London Councils

LONDON COUNCILS

London Councils' Business Plan sets out the overarching themes and work priorities for the organisation for the year ahead. These reflect a range of conversations with members across the capital and detailed discussions with Executive Members who lead on specific policy areas.

The scope of the plan reflects the wide range of policy areas we seek to influence as well of course as the ambitions for a range of services, such as the Freedom Pass, Taxicard and others, where Leaders have decided these are best managed and delivered by London Councils on boroughs' behalf.

The plan gives a strategic overview of London Councils in that it sets out the overall framework, direction of travel and priorities for the organisation, while recognising that the year ahead will inevitably require an agile organisation to be able to respond to events as they occur.

London has, of course, recent tragic examples of the sort of event that fully tests the resilience of our city and its governance.

The devastating fire at Grenfell Tower, following on from terrorist attacks at Westminster and London Bridge, remind us all that we must never cease to do everything in our power to bolster our resilience and build upon the network of mutual support and assistance that the capital's boroughs have worked hard to develop.

And while 'resilience' has a very specific meaning in terms of emergency response, it also has a wider meaning for London and for Londoners.

It means ensuring our economy grows to support jobs for residents. It means ensuring our schools continue to excel and that our young people are primed to meet the challenges life throws at them. It means that our transport system works to meet the demands of a 21st century world city; that our air is cleaner, our environment greener and our streets are safer.

All of these areas go to the heart of what local government can achieve for residents and these are all areas where we can achieve more for London when we all put our shoulders to the wheel.

It would be impossible to look at the political, economic and social environment ahead and not consider the possible impacts of Brexit for London as a global city. Leading members have been meeting with London business leaders to discuss how best, working with the Mayor and others, we can come together to protect London's communities from some of the adverse consequences of Brexit and clearly this work will be increasingly important for our member councils over the coming months.

Equally we have been seeking to ensure that London Councils is up to the task of meeting such tests. That was why the London Challenge team was asked to explore ways in which London Councils could best reflect the ambition of London local government. The Challenge team's report, in July last year, set out a number of proposals around how London Councils can best utilise the contribution of London local government more broadly in its work. These have both influenced and been reflected in the Business Plan set out here and will further influence the development of London Councils' work over the coming year. I look forward to working with you all on achieving the objectives outlined in this plan.

Purpose

London Councils helps London local government to influence the development of London as a world city and to secure outcomes on behalf of individual localities across London.

- London Councils is the collective voice for London local government. It seeks to be an influential advocate for the interests of boroughs, promoting both councils' leadership of their places and of a broad range of public services on behalf of their localities. London Councils fights for the resources, powers and freedoms that boroughs need to play that role.
- London Councils is a hub for co-ordination and co-operation between boroughs collectively as well as a focus for mutual challenge and support designed to drive efficiency and future improvement on behalf of Londoners.
- London Councils is a focal point for brokering the collective relationship between London local government and partners and stakeholders nationally and within London, including government, the Mayor and wider London public services.
- London Councils facilitates the development of shared London local government initiatives, campaigns and services. This includes the direct delivery of a defined range of services, as well as acting as an incubator for other shared activities.

Our over-arching themes for 2017/18 are as follows:

1) Resourcing London

In a period of acute financial retrenchment, we will continue to work alongside our member boroughs and partners to help manage the financial and wider public financing climate for London. We will:

- seek to lobby for London's interests in the distribution of funding/provide support on proposed changes in the basis of financing local government and promote greater fiscal devolution;
- work with boroughs and partners to develop means of trying to manage and mitigate the impact of financial reductions upon London boroughs;
- support councils as they seek to manage significant reductions in their funding base.

2) Shaping London and its localities

We will work with our member authorities and others to secure for them the tools, freedoms, powers and resources in order to help them shape their local places coherently and influence the development of London overall. We will:

- promote sustainable growth and seek to boost the supply of housing;
- influence the evolution of the London Plan and national planning policy in a way that reflects the importance of locally determined framework for shaping places;

- support moves to allow London to invest in its strategic and local infrastructure in a way that can support wider ambitions around sustainable growth.

3) Reforming London's Public Services

We will continue to highlight the strong London argument for boroughs, groups of boroughs and the Mayor to be at the heart of commissioning a broader range of integrated local public services. We will:

- work closely with the Mayor of London to continue to negotiate a further devolution settlement from London;
- continue to play a strong brokerage role to help develop opportunities that can be applied more broadly across London local government and, in particular, to support the implementation of the reforms that have been agreed in areas such as Skills, Employment and Health;
- support boroughs and groups of boroughs in their work to turn this into practice on the ground by providing shared learning and approaches and developing London frameworks that allow this devolution to take place at local level.

4) Supporting London to deliver

We will continue to both work on behalf of our member councils and support them in securing good quality, effective and efficient services for local people. We will:

- provide a defined range of direct services to Londoners and London organisations directly on the collective behalf of boroughs;
 - act as a focal point for brokerage and co-ordination between different London public services, the GLA group and boroughs on key delivery issues;
 - work with key political, professional and managerial groupings across London local government to help strengthen the capacity of our members to innovate, share, learn and deliver good quality and cost effective services.
- ensure that London local government secures a critical role in the governance of London overall and that its indispensable contribution to effective leadership of the city is reflected in evolving structures and ways of working;
 - work with wider partners – including other major city areas – to develop a clearer understanding of the interdependence of London and other parts of the country and to see that reflected in the evolution of policy.

5) Influencing and strengthening London local government's wider contribution

We will seek to secure strong and positive influence for London local government nationally and regionally and with a range of stakeholders. We will:

- ensure that borough influence on national policy – with government political parties generally and other national partners – is strong and credible;

Our Directorate Programmes detail the range of work that will support our overall objectives, all of which relate in some way to our over-arching themes of resourcing London, shaping London and its localities, reforming London's public services, supporting London to deliver and influencing and strengthening London local government's wider contribution.

These Directorate Programmes are set out in detail in Appendices One to Three - attached.

The way we work

Underpinning the way we work is the following set of principles:

- We are a cross party, politically-led organisation motivated by our common commitment to the interests of London and London local government.
- We seek to harness the power that comes from the practice and the people of our member authorities – individually and in groupings of boroughs.
- We work closely with a range of public, private and third sector partners across London and more broadly to secure our aims.
- We work in partnership with the national Local Government Association and seek mutually to reinforce our respective work on local government's overall behalf.
- We strive continuously to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of our organisation on behalf of our member authorities and seek to make London Councils an attractive and challenging place for people to develop their careers.

Organisational Implications

In addition to the steps already taken to reflect the outcome of the London Councils Challenge, we shall continue to adapt the organisation and its way of working to reflect the findings. We will:

- Develop our operational model and organisational development framework in a way which engages with staff.
- Continue to manage our resources to drive on-going improvements in value for our member authorities, in a way which continues to meet their evolving needs over the next five years.
- Further equip ourselves with the skills, knowledge and competences required to support London local government in this critical period.
- Continue to create an environment in which we continue to attract talented people and challenge them to deliver outstanding performance.
- Working with members to review other key operations, accountability and governance mechanisms to enable continued strong political leadership of our work that is transparent and rooted in clear legitimacy.
